Mission Statement

The mission of the Academy is to promote and celebrate excellence in teaching and to foster learning through inquiry.

Goals

The Academy will promote faculty leadership to enhance teaching and learning, to advocate for effective educational environments, and to foster a community of scholars.

Core Values

We believe that educating students is a fundamental responsibility of every faculty member of the University of Georgia and that teachers are catalysts for effective learning.

Academic Affairs Faculty Symposium

Changing Roles, Perceptions & Expectations: Faculty in the American Research University

The 2014 Academic Affairs Faculty Symposium will examine the changing roles, perceptions and expectations of UGA faculty. Participants will discuss how changing faculty roles and expectations impact the quality of their work and their contributions to the University's missions. Activities to be examined include faculty recruiting, retention, mentoring, professional development, leadership, engagement, entrepreneurship and fund-raising. The purpose of the symposium is to explore and develop strategies for enhancing the university environment for UGA faculty
